"NOT GUILTY" SAYS JURY VERDICT

D. Worth Stanton Freed on Charge of Shooting and Killing Jesse Rolph

JURY OUT 38 MINUTES

Case Submitted Without Argument and Courtroom Cleared of Spectators Fefore Jury Comes In.

D. Worth Stanton, charged with shooting to death Jesse Rolph on May 12, was acquitted by a jury in the Corporation Court last night The jury was out exactly thirty-eight minutes.

The verdict given by the jury follows: "We the jury in the case of the commonwealth of Virginia against D. Worth Stanton, charged with the killing of Jesse Rolph on the 12th day of May, 1919, find the defendant D. Worth Stanton, not guilty."

Immediately after the verdict was announced Carl Budwesky, junior counsel for the accused, moved that the defendant be discharged and Judge L. C. Barley granted this thus ending a four days' sensational trial.

Stanton shook the hands of the jurors as they slowly filed out of the court room and his wife who was in an ante room when the verdict was announced wept when she heard the verdict and assisted to the court room by relatives she also thanked the jurors and counsel for her husband.

The scene was a rather dramatic one as the jurors marched into the room. Probably ten minutes before they knocked to announce to the baliff that they were ready to report, Judge Barley directed that the courtroom, which was packed to suffocation, be cleared of all spectators. The big crowd which had come to hear arguments and the verdict was doomed to disappointment, for there were no arguments and they were compelled to leave the room, the court fearing there might be a demonstration on the part of the spectators

As P. E. Clift, foreman of the jury, read the verdict giving Stanton his freedom of the charge made against him there was a suspressed thrill among the relatives of the acused man who sat in the little court room which was given way to when one woman, a relative of Stanton, ejaculated, "Thank God."

Soon after the verdict had been announced the defendant was surrounded by relatives who congratulated him on the verdict and in a short time Mr. and Mrs. Stanton were driven to their home in Rosemont. A small sized crowd lingered around the courtroom on the sidewalk and saw the defendant leave.

The trial of Stanton lasted four days and his wife, Mrs. Martha V. Stanton, was one of the principal witnesses in the case. She told of meetings in a Washington hotel with Jesse Rolph and Stanton took the stand and outlined events leading up to the killing of Rolph which occured on the streets in Rosemont after he had asked Rolph the whereabouts of his wife. Words and a scuffle ensued which ended in the shooting.

The accused was represented by Attorney Edmund Burke assisted by Attorney Carl Budwesky. The prosecution was conducted by Commonwealth's Attorney Howard W. Smith.

The big crowd that gathered in the courtroom was anxious to hear the closing arguments in this case. The jurors, however, told the attorneys they were not anxious to hear arguments and the attorneys on both sides contended themselves with simply reading the court's instructions.

As previously told in the Gazette Rolph, who was employed as foreman of the anglesmith shop at the plant of theVirginia Shipbuilding Corporation, was shot the afternoon of May 12 while near his home in Rosemont. He died two days afterward at the Alexandria Hospital.

Stanton according to his own testimony met him and asked about the whereabouts of his, Stanton's wife, and Stanton alleged that Rolph denied knowing of her wherabouts and struck him with a bat and the shooting followed.

The taking of testimony in the case was practically completed yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock and then came instructions.

When court reconvened at 8 o'clock last night John Rolph, brother of the deceased, was recalled to the stand and told of financial transactions regarding the purchase of an automobile by his brother This ended the testimony in the case.

RAILROADERS ARE BACK AT WORK

Men Return Pending Settlement of Disputes

POINTS TO ANARCHY

Hines Wants Compliance of Unions Before Treating With Men—Blanton Introduces Resolution in House

Reports to the Railroad Administration say that in response to President Wilson's action of Thursday night, shopmen are rapidly returning to work on the Lackawanna, Baltimore and Ohio, Norfolk and Western, Western Maryland, Rock Island and St. Paul Railroads and on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh.

A joint resolution "declaring that a state of anarchy exists in the United States, authorizing the President to free interstate mails and traffic from further unlawful interference and to adequately protect citizens in their property rights,' was introduced in the House by Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas.

No mention was made of the railroad strikes, but the resolution declared that "through organized effort the proper transmission of interstate mails, telegraphic communication and interstate traffic has been interfered with, retarded, and in many instances forcibly prevented altogether, thereby impairing crippling and attempting to destroy industries of the United States."

"As a result of open brigandage, hitherto tolerated, demands have been made on the Government of the United States to pay out of the people's treasury into the hands of a special class public money to the extent of billions of dollars," it continued, "with threat of resolution against the Government of the United States, unless such demands are complied with, which conditions create and establish a state of anarchy in the United States."

"The President is hereby authorized," it said, in conclusion, "to employ the entire naval and military forces of the United States aid the resources of the Government to destroy such anarchy, prevent any interference with the proper transmission of interstate mails, telegraph communication and interstate traffic, that he shall make secure all citizens in their private property rights and their rights and privileges to work without molestation."

WOULD ASSUME FULL CONTROL

President Sends Message To Congress Concerning Food Question

ISSUE MUST BE FACED

Drastic Regulations Covering Almost Every Industry Urged to Curb The Present High Cost of Living.

President Wilson, in his message to Congress yesterday, called upon that body to assume full control over the processes of food distribution in this country as the only effective means of giving relief to the American people from the high cost of living.

At the same time he struck straight at violence in the form of Bolshevism or any other form, when he solemnly declared that "there must be no threats," that brute force will not be tolerated and that those who resort to arbitrary and coercive action "only prepare their own destruction."

No message that has proceeded from him since he entered the White House has gone more directly to the root of domestic evil and none has been delivered that will strike home more surely. It inevitably must produce two effects. It will give reassurance to the legitimate business of the nation now racked by doubts and apprehensions, and it will give notice to the profiteers and moneygrabbers that ruin and imprisonment await them if they do not yield to the popular demand for fair dealing.

Wheat shipments will be limited and controlled so as to lower the price of flour.

There are indications of combinations in leather, coal, lumber and textile industries to keep up prices. Public action no doubt will cause many who have perhaps unwittingly adopted illegal methods to abandon them.

Retailers in part—sometimes in large part—are responsible for exorbitant prices.

Government stocks of food and clothing will be sold without profit.

Surplus stocks in private hands will be drawn out of storage and placed on the market through legal processes

Congress should extend the Lever Food Control act to apply during times of peace and should broaden its antihoarding provisions to cover foodstuffs, fuel, clothing and other necessaries of life.

Congress should enact a law governing cold storage.

Congress should provide measures for Federal licensing of all corporations engaged in Interstate Commerce with specific regulations to prevent profiteering.

The pending bill for control of security issues should be passed.

Adequate funds should be appropriated to enable Government agencies to give full publicity to retailers' cost and selling profits.

Penalties should be provided for profiteering.

Provision should be made for marking on the package the price paid to the producer of all goods shipped in Interstate Commerce.

With Congress affording the measures necessary public opinion and the attitude of purchasers probably can be counted on to do much toward bringing down living costs.

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN

Panaceas supposed to be practical, in reducing the high cost of living, are coming from every quarter of the compass. It reminds us of the late Rev. Dr. John Hall, many years ago pastor of the Fifth Avenue, New York, Presbyterian Church. During one of his discourses he said: "I enjoy walking the streets of this great city during the holiday season. I stop and inspect the displays in windows, and then turn and walk away, thanking God that there are so many things in the world I can do without."

One remedy for high prices has been little debated. That is the return to "the simple life." This is the suggestion of a contemporary.

There is no quicker way of brringing down the price of an article than refusing to buy it. We have to have things, no doubt, but we do no trequire so many of them so often as we imagine. Civilization has developed artificial needs that have to be satisfied to some extent. Thus we live in houses, though tents would be cheaper. We wear coats, waistcoats, trousers, though overalls might answer every purpose. We use plates, knives, forks, glasses, cups, though a bowl and a spoon might suffice. We eat a great variety of food, though a few staples would support life.

It is well night impossible to conceive under existing conditions, of the economic and social revolution which would follow any real 'return to nature.' The scheme is impracticable for many reasons. Yet there are certain absentions easliy possible.

It is suggested that the quiet personal boycott is bound to be more or less effective. It is surprising how many things we can get along without if we try. We can stop eating fruit when we are charged about twice what it is worth. We can wear our straw hats yellowed by time and dust when cleaning costs double what it did last year. We can have our shoes polished half as often. We can abandon cigars for a pipe. We can diminish the number of our visits to the soda fountain and the ice cream parlor. We can avoid the expensive restaurants. In brief, we can fail to live up to our national reputation as "spenders."

THE STRIKE SITUATION

The President has instructed his Director General of Railways to take up the matter of conceding or rejecting the demand of railway men for increased wages. He has been authorized to tell the shop employees that their case will be considered on its merits. But before they can have any dealings whatever with the government they must go back to work.

As a contemporary says, "it was an intolerable situation which approximately 100,000 of these shop men deliberately brought about. Applicants for increased wages, they broke away from all restraint before an answer could be given them. They walked out and in many instances tied up transportation and prevented the delivery of food. Their action was a direct boost to the high cost of living. It was a menace to the entire country. When they return to their jobs they will receive attention, and not until then. Strikes intended as a weapon to force consideration cannot be tolerated. Public sentiment would not sustain such action.

What justification there is for the universal demand of the railroad men for more pay we do not know. The public does not know. Congress does not know. The Railroad Commission, headed by Director General Hines, is presumed to know. In any event, it is for Mr. Hines to go into details with the representatives of the men and come to a conclusion.

"But one thing is certain. These constant rises in wages with constant rises in prices of commodities are getting the country nowhere. The crux of the whole problem is to find a way to lowe r living costs—to make the dollar that a man receives more valuable.

All proper legislation that be given the President in this vexatious contingency should and doubtless will be enacted. For there must be cooperation. Partisanship of any kind what ever must not be permitted to interfere with the solution of this most vital high cost of living problem."

THE REACTION WILL COME

It is suggested that this country s on a magnificent prosperity drunk —pretty much everybody, save the 'ellow on fixed salary whose nose s on the grindstone of increased axes and prices of things to eat nd to wear.

Dealers in jewelry, expensive apparel and food delicacies throughout he East and Middle West state that he demand for these things is unprecedented and the folks don't care what they have to pay. In the Sunday auto parades at Washington every third machine contains a family of colored folks, and the records of sales show that wage earners all over the country are going in for auto luxuries.

Folks are selling their war bonds nd buying luxuries, besides blowing n wage increases.

Our public debt is approximately 25,500,000,000, or over $1,000 per apita for every male wage earner n the country.

Any sort of a drunk has an end ooner or later. The after effects are well defined—empty purses, eadache, nausea, stupor, ugliness. nd there is more danger to sound overnment in a reckless, psycholoial drunk than in any other sort.

GET THE THING STRAIGHT

The railroad men demand a reduction in the high cost of living. In the ame breath they demand nearly a billion dollar increase annually in heir wages, and an increase in railroad rates. Also at the same time hey are striking to enforce the wage emand, tying up or crippling transportation, shutting down coal mines nd other industries, and preventing he shipment of foodstuffs as as well s of all other commodities. How can he Government reduce the cost of ving when the railroad men are oing precisely the things that must nevitably increase it? Who is actualy raising the price of living at this risis? Who are actually in league ith the profiteers? How much nerity is there in the demand for lowr prices when those who demand hem are doing their best to boost hem higher?

If the railroad people do not call ack their strikers and agree to make heir wage increase dependent on the uccess of the Government's efforts o reduce prices, they will class themselves with the profiteers, with the people who make forced levies on helpless consumers—Baltimore Sun.

WILL SEIZE FOODSTUFFS

U. S. Officials Open Drive Upon High Living Cost

Philadelphia, Aug. 9.—Vigorous prosecution of food profiteers, and seizure of the goods they have stored was promised yesterday by Earnest Harvey, Assistant United States District Attorney following a conference with Todd Daniel, chief agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and his staff. The campaign started without delay and two operative sof the department, who had just arrived from Washington, were assigned to the task of ferreting out men who have stored food for the purpose of boosting prices.

The first step will be the investigation of the operations of several Philadelphians, Mr. Harvey said, though he refused to divulge their names. He said reports had reached his office, that indicated that these men could throw some light on the situation, even if they personally were not involved. The investigation of cold storage houses, would come later, it continued, and expressed the hope that the department would have some definite facts upon which to proceed early next week.

"The law authorizes the seizure of foodstuffs, when hoarded in violation of the law," said Mr. Harvey, "and we will act without delay, if we discover cases of this nature. Hoarding is defined as accumulating or withdrawing foodstuffs from the market for the purpose of unreasonably affecting prices."

FATHERS MINUS CLOTHING

Three Youths Find Themselves in Predicament at Lafayette

Philadelphia, Aug. 9.—The only reason four young men from Philadelphia did not go home yesterday clad in bathing suits and barrels was that there were no barrels handy. They had the bathing suits, which for swimming are plenty, but such garments are not enough for traveling in crowded cities, even if the weather is hot.

The young men were swimming in the river near Lafayette when the boat house in which they had left their clothes burst into flames. By the time they reached the shore the building was a furnace and the adjoining boathouse was going.

Three of the boathouses were destroyed.

The young men were decidedly up in the air. Somebody suggested the good old barrel method of dealing with the situation. The unfortunate did not become enthusiastic, but finally decided they would try anything once, until the scarity of barrels developed. Only one barrel, used for refuse, could be found, and not one of the four would tackle it.

Sympathetic members of neighboring boathouses raked out an odd assortment of clothing, including a very large pair of overalls, a small coat, a rainoat and two caps, but no shoes were to be found.

Finally the youths reached friends by telephone, who arrived two hours later with sufficient garments to relieve the situation.

MOB ATTACKS POLICE

Rifles and Revolvers Used in Clash; Two Men Wounded

Dublin, Aug. 9.—A party of more than thirty men attacked the police hut at Hoinee, East Clare, with rifle and revolver fire yesterday morning. The police replied vigorously, the fight lasting more than an hour.

None of the police were hit, but it is believed two of the attackers were wounded.

LOCOMOTIVE DRIVER SHOT AT

Engineer At Danville Thinks Strike Was Responsible

Danville, Va., Aug. 9.—Charles Baker locomotive engineer, who was shot at three times late on Wednesday night while he was bringing a northbound passenger train into the station, is almost sure that the man revealed by the headlight of his engine, who is believed to have dore the shooting, was a negro. No clue has been secured to his identity.

Baker says that he has no enemies and that the attempt to kill him was made because he has been bringing his train into Danville on time and has been assisting members of the crew in watering and coupling which is usually done by men now on strike.

it is to have your tire vulcanizing done by us. There's no exaggeration in that statement, as we can prove by the experiences of many of our customers who have saved hundreds of dollars on our vulcanized tires. New tires cost a lot of money, and our vulcanizing makes old tires almost like new. That's why.

ORGANIST MAKES CHARGES

Says Insincere Preachers and Silly Music Cause Empty Pews

Pittsburgh, Aug. 9.—Lack of church attendance on Sundays was laid directly at the doors of ministers' insincerity, in that 75 per cent of the preacners do not believe what they preach, and the people having "gotten on to it," in a speech by Clifford Demarest, an organist, this week, before an assembly of 100 organists from all parts of the country, met to discuss "church music," one of the many subjects listed for consideration at the annual convention of the National Association of Organists.

Church music also was largely to blame, said Mr. Demarest. "The silly words of many anthems that are sung nowadays are not likely to attract the public at large." Music of a more uplifting kind was recommended to attract the business man who, it was explained, does not go to church simply because it takes him three days to get over it and readjust himself to meet the problems of the day. That there is a real desire on the part of the business man to become interested in religious work, was one of the points maintained.

Again the minister came in for his shart of opporbrium. On his head was placed the responsibility for much mad church music, and it seems that nine ministers out of ten "get the organist's goat." Their lack of musical knowledge, it was said ,throws the poor organist into fits of despair. It was said that one divine knew only "Traummerei" and a few hymns.

CONSTITUTION DECEIVED

Organic Law Presents Impassable Barrier to Soldier Vote

That the Constitution of the State presented an impassable barrier in the matter of allowing to participate in party elections service men who had not been able to comply with its provision requiring the payment of poll taxes six months prior to the general election, as a prerequisite to voting is the opinion of Attorney-General John R. Saunders.

The question was referred to Colonel Saunders by Governor Davis, to whom Secretary Morton L. Wallerstein, of the local branch of the American Legion, had forwarded the request of the legion's executive committee that the Governor ,through the Attorney-General, investigate the legality of having the Legislature waive the constitutional requirement upon presentation by the service of poll tax receipts for three years past.

It was the belief of the legion's committee that the selective service act, placing these men in the armed service of the United States, and making it practically impossible to pay their taxes within the required time, had rendered void for that time this partocular provision of the Constitution.

In disposing of the matter and at the same time expressing his regret at the situation in which the service men find themselves, Colonel Saunders cites the following construction of legislative authority with reference to suffrage:

"While the elective franchise is a privilege rather than a right and may be taken away by the power which conferred it, yet when it has been granted by the Constitution it cannot be abridged by the Legislature, and all laws in regulation of the same must be reasonable, uniform, and impartial. Where the Constitution of a State fixes the qualifications and determines who shall be deemed qualified voters in direct, positive, and affirmative terms, these qualifications cannot be added to by legislative enactment.

"Any provisions which would impose upon a particular class of citizens conditions and requirement not imposed upon all others are void. Neither is it within the power of the Legislature to dispense with any of the constitutional qualifications and confer the elective franchise upon other classes than those to whom it is given by the Constitution; for the enlargement and deprivation of the right of suffrage are eually obnoxious to the Constitution. In short it is not within the power of the Legislature to deny abridge ,or extend the constitutional right of suffrage; or in any way to change the qualifications of voters as defined by the Constitution of the State."

SUGAR COMES TO VIRGINIA

The state of Virginia has been offered a carload of sugar at cost by the Louisiana committee of the United States sugar equalization board in a telegram to the governor, which says that the government has placed at the disposition of the committee fifteen carloads, approximately 1.500 barrels, to be sold at $8.82 per hundred pounds net cash free on board New Orleans. The board suggests that the sugar be placed at points where it is most needed for preserving and has decided to distribute the fifteen cars one to each of the fifteen Southern States.

The governor wired in reply instructing that the sugar be shipped here at once and distributed through federal authorities so that prompt delivery may be assured and the purchaser may know comparative prices.

TWO DIE IN PLANE

Gasoline Tank Explodes, Burning Bodies of Men Beyond Recognition.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Aug. 9.—Lieutenant W. H. Tillisch and E. . Devin an inspector of the Department of Agriculture, were killed Thursday by the falling of the airplane in which they were flying over a cotton field.

The plane was flying at an altitude of only 100 feet. It is believed it was caught in an air pocket. When the machine crashed the gasoline tank exploded, burning the bodies of the two men beyond recognition

Wewin and Lieutenant Tillisch were scouting for ravages of the pink boll worm in the cotton fields.

WAR ON TOBACCO

Use of Indian Plant Said to Have Brought Many Woes Into the World

One of the organizations now engaged in war on tobacco makes the following charges:

1. That millionaire tobacco profiteers seized the time of our country's need to fasten the cigarette and tobacco habit on our boys and young men.

2. That the Lady Nicotine is personally responsible for the General Slocum disaster in which a thousand lives were lost.

3. That the glaring tobacco advertisements are insulting to many mothers and sisters and wives.

4. That it is the apparent determination of the tobacco profiteers to fasten the cigarette habit on every boy and young man in America regardless of desire and petition of parents and friends.

5. That the tobacco grower should be raising corn and food to reduce the H. C. L.

6. That the smell a man takes home from the barber shop disgusts his wife and family, who may not use the same brand.

7. That the loafer in the country store damages the goods with his horrid smoke.

8. That the wives of smokers who attend lodges can be smelled six squares for six weeks.

9. That the cigarette smoking young man who stands on street corners insults women on account of his cigarette.

10. Etc., etc., etc., ad infinitum.

SUSPECTED REDS

Four Men Taken in Custody at Bronx

New York, Aug. 9.—Charged with criminal anarchy under an old section of the penal code four men were arrested here yestrday by detectives of the bomb squad after a raid on their apartment in the Bronx.

Much anarchistic literature and a loaded revolver were found in the flat.

According to the detectives, the four men, all Finns, and three of them claiming to be carpenters, have distributed a large quantity of revolutionary propaganda among foreign born workmen in the United States. This literature urged that violent measures be used to overthrow the Government.

The four men have been under observation for four months, the detectives said, and were preparing to leave the city when arrested. Among the papers seized were a number of membership cards in the I. W. W.

CUT THIS OUT

Special Notice: Dr. Frederick Jacobson says that phosphates are just as essential to any woman who tires easily, is nervous or irritated, worn out or looks haggard and pale, to make a strong, robust, vigorous, healthy body, as they are to make corn, wheat or any vegetable plant grow strong and healthy. The luck of phosphates is the cause of all enemic conditions and the administration of 5-grain Argo-Phosphate Tablets will increase the strength and endurance 500 per cent in a few weeks time in many instances. Dispensed by Richard Gibson and The Rexall Store.

DONT WASTE TIME

It's a waste of time to experiment with liniments and plasters when you have a dull, throbbing backache or sharp, stabbing twinge. Get after the cause! Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this.

William Dawson, blacksmith, 806 Duke street, Alexandria says: "Before I started using Doan's Kidney Pills I had rubbed my back with liniments and taken different remedies without any relief. My back got so weak and sore I could hardly pick up anything and I had to take hold of something to help me straighten up. Mornings my back felt as though it were broken. Sharp, shooting pains would catch me, and I got so I though thought I would have to give up. Finally, through the recommendation of a friend, I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, which I bought at Summers' Drug Store. Doan's soon convinced me they were the remedy I needed, and before long my back felt so strong I could shoe horses all day and not feel a bit worse for the strain." (Above statement given April 13, 1915).

THRACE CUT UP

Recognition Under League of Nations Part of The Plan

Paris, Aug. 9.—The Peace Conference reached a solution of the Thracian problem Thursday, according to the Intransigeant, by dividing Thrace into a number of parts, some going to Greece and others being designated to form the future free state of Constantinople and a new free state under the league of nations.

The solution arrived, according to the Intransigeant, provides for dividing Thrace into Eastern and Western Thrace. Eastern Thrace will be divided into three parts, Greece getting two of them and a third being designated as part of the future free State of Constantinople. Of Western Thrace, a quarter is to be given Greece and the other three-quarters are to constitute a free State to be set up under the league of nations.

A commission of technical experts will be sent to Thrace to put the solution into practical form, it was said.

The Peace Conference, the newspaper adds, will adjourn for a vacation throughout September, the American, English and Italian delegaes reurning to heir homes.

DANIELS EXPLAINS

Says He Did Not Know He Was Acting In Official Capacity In Cutting Admiral's Address.

Dan Diego, Cal., Aug. 9.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels authorized a statement yesterday in which he told briefly of the circumstances that led to Admiral Rodman's announcement last night at a banquet that a speech he had prepared in advance would have to remain in his pocket as Secretary Daniels had censored it and told him not to use.

Secretary Daniels said:

"Admiral Rodman showed me a copy of a speech that he had written and I commented upon it and advised that a certain paragraph be omitted. I did not know that I was acting in any official capacity as a censor at this time, nor did I know that the speech had been sent broadcast in advance. Had I known copies were in the hands of newspapers, I would have made no objection to the use of the speech.

"The speech was shown to me and I commented upon it in an informal manner."

The paragraph in the Admiral's speech which the Secretary thought should be eliminated referred to possible future wars. Admiral Rodman laughingly said today that the whole affair amounted to nothing and "it didn't bother me a bit."

When They Call In Error

If some one calls in error at your home, you don't slam the door after him. You accept his apology and make him feel at ease. The same treatment should apply in telephoning. If some one calls your number through mistake he deserves your courteous acceptance of his apology as surely as if he had called at your home.

Wrong numbers happen only occasionally. Be courteous to those who call you through mistake.

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to and unaffected by any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (d) of this section. The term "Council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides Cardui Gave Relief

Marksville, La.,—Mrs. Alice Johnson of this place writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straight en up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shal lalways praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints. Cardui may women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present be just what you need. Thousands of good health. Give it a trial.

FEASTED IN JAIL

Music, Vaudeville, Food Galore for Man Convicted of Contempt

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 9.—A phonograph and vaudeville teams entertaining him in jail floods of clippings, letters and telegrams, more food than three men could eat, books flowers, hundreds of visitors—that's an editor's life in jail.

Memphis has fairly outdone itself to make pleasant the stay in jail of Edward T. Leech, editor of the Memphis Press, who is today serving the fifth day of his ten day sentence for alleged contempt of court because of publication of a political editorial.

Leech is confined in a room with a Federal prisoner sentenced for selling drugs. Friends installed an electric fan, water cooler and every other possible convenience. Letters have been pouring in from every part of the United States, and even subscriptions to his paper are being telephoned and mailed to the ajil.

"I'll be glad when it's over so I can rest up," Leech said yesterday. "It's the hardest work I ever did."

33,000 WORKERS STRIKE

Chicago, Aug. 9.—A general strike of 33,000 employes at the packing plants in the stock yards began at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The action followed the decision of the Stock Yards Labor Council to call a general strike unless the State troops and police guards were immediately withdrawn from the plants.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Decision to recall the troops from the stock yards and riot district here, whose presence was one of the causes alleged for the general stock yards strike, was announced yesterday afternoon.

The strike was precipitated by the return of 5000 negroes to work Thursday.

The dispute, according to labor leaders, is over the employment of non-union negroes rather than race hatred. Many of the negroes, It is said, have refused to join the unions. When the white employees reported for work early in the day they demanded that the State troops and police guards which had been stationed at every plant when the negroes returned yesterday be immediately withdrawn. Both the city authorities and the packers declined to accede to this demand. The men walked out quietly. It is said that several thousands of the negro non-union workmen remained at their posts.

More than 1000 policemen and deputy sheriffs remained on duty in the various plants.

While the thousands of white employees were walking out a large number of negro men and women applied for employment.

MAKET MAKES GAINS

Speculative Element Appears Bold; With Money Supplies Freer and Rates Lower.

New York, Aug. 9.—On transactions slightly in excess of 2,000,000 shares, a record equally only three times in this year's enormous dealings, the stock market yesterday made substantial recovery from yesterday's violent upheaval. Net gains in a wide variety of issues extended from two to almost ten points.

The readjustment was not effected without considerable unsettlement however. Prices reacted sharply from their opening advance, when United States Steel and several other leaders fell under yesterday's lowest levels.

The steady improvement in the last half of the session was attributed to heavy accumulation was attributed to heavy accumulation of representative shares by leading financial interests accelerated by enforced short covering.

For reasons not clearly defined the speculative element seemed to be less apprehensive of the outcome of President Wilson's address before the joint session of Congress, delivered after the market's close.

Local labor disturbances lost none of their unfavorable aspects and the extension of the railroad shopmen's strike on the New Haven system gave fresh point to the demands of the railway brotherhoods.

These adverse conditions were balanced for trading purposes at least, by the easier money market, call loans and time funds being in freer supply probably as a result of the huge shrinkage in loans which followed yesterday's impairment of quoted values.

THEATRES

RICHMOND THEATRE

Because he had been wronged and his lips sealed by his sense of honor, he turned his back on his own people, swore vengeance on the white race and became "Ali Zaman," the "Scourge of the Desert."

But the woman whom he tried to degrade saw that he was "white," and regenerated him with love.

A powerful and thrilling drama of the great Sahara desert, showing a spectacular fight with desert brigands, camel caravans, Bedouin Oriental dancing girls.

Starring the famous English actor, H. B. Warner, as "Ali Zaman" and as Captain Rand, "The Man Who Turned White" will be seen tonight at the Richmond Theatre.

INGOMAR THEATRE

Evelyn Nesbit has been pre eminently in the public eye for a number of years. She has made a spectacular success on the stage and comes to the screen under most auspicious circumstances.

"The Woman Who Gave," is an intensely dramatic story of an artist's model in the studios of Paris. She is compelled to marry a Bulgarian Prince and the life he forces her to lead makes her hate her own beauty. How fate intervenes to give her happiness is most graphically shown in this most unique story.

GRAND THEATRE

Poor fellow! Men disliked him and he hadn't many friends. You see, he despised women.

Not that he was born to hate the fair sex. All his life he had been pursued by the girl whom relatives had selected as his mate at the time of his birth.

And so he fought shy of the ladies.

But his popularity increased by leaps and bounds when he fell for "the beautiful one." She became a feast for his eyes. Gallantry overstepped the bounds of propriety and he founnd himself behind the bars of romance.

Then beauty reformed him and he became a regular guy.

Also Larry Seman in "Passing the Buck." A comedy that kills the gloom.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
